

JASON INDUSTRIAL WELCOMES NEW HOSE MANAGER FOR LATIN AMERICA

On May 2nd, 2016, Miguel Velazquez joined Jason Industrial in the newly created position of Hose Manager for Latin America.

Developing a best in class hydraulic hose program throughout Latin America, Miguel will also be responsible with factory sourcing, inventory allocation and customer specific sales strategies.

He brings with him twenty-nine years of rubber and plastic hose experience - ten years as co-owner and operator of Indomax, a manufacturer of industrial, hydraulic and automotive hose and nineteen years in wholesale hose, coupling and PT belting distribution through the co-owned Mangueras Industriales C.A.

Born and raised in Venezuela, Miguel graduated from LSU in 1987 with a B.S. in Industrial Engineering. He emigrated to the U.S. in 2010 and co-founded a small Import-Export Distribution Company in South Florida to service Industrial and Automotive products for the Venezuelan and Latin America markets.

Miguel will be based out of Miami. Among many recreational activities, he enjoys boating, golfing and snow skiing with his wife, Anneliese, and their three grown sons.

Please join me in welcoming Miguel to the Jason Industrial family!
