

JASON WELCOMES NEW OEM SALES ENGINEER

Effective April 9, 2012, Samuel Ortega will join the Jason/Megadyne OEM Team.

As an OEM Sales Engineer, Samuel will be responsible for OEM activity in Mexico, as well as assisting us as needed with OEM-related projects in North, Central and South America.

Earning a degree in Engineering from Politecnico di Torino in Turin, Italy, Samuel has been based in the Megadyne technical department in Mathi, Italy since February 2011. In that time, he's traveled extensively between plants learning about our products and manufacturing processes.

Samuel will reside in and work out of Mexico City.

Please join me in welcoming Samuel to the Jason/Megadyne family!
